SADC Diplomats guests at Mapungubwe Festivals

Diplomats from Mozambique, Zimbabwe and Namibia will grace this years edition of Mapungubwe Arts and Culture Festivals that started last weekend. The diplomats arrive today to enjoy the Comedy Festival that is top-lined by Mashabela and Salesman at the Jack Botes Hall, Polokwane tonight.

The Festival named after the ancient Mapungubwe Kingdom in the North of Limpopo, dating more than a thousand years ago features Limpopos creme de la creme in King Monada, King Benny Mayengane and Makhadzi. South Africa's best will also play until the wee hours of Sunday Morning.

On Monday morning, Limpopo Premier Chupu Mathabatha will welcome Limpopo's team of the moment, Telkom Knockout Champions , Baroka FC. An open bus will carry the boys around Polokwane City and neighboring townships with musician like King Monada and other dignitaries.

Premier Mathabatha urges all Limpopo people to flock to the Cricket Stadium for Mapungubwe Festivals tomorrow morning, and also lineup Polokwane streets to welcome Baroka FC on Monday morning.
