Do not get confused - candidate's options after the results

Results of 2016 Grade 12 examination have been announced by MEC Ishmael Kgetjepe on the 5th January 2016. Some learners such as Malamba Nemavhadwe of Tshivhase Secondary School have made it in flying colours, others achieved on average while others such as those in Makidi and Nokanantshwana schools could not pass. All these learners need some tips on way forward and the following information is important.

1. What options are available for those who have passed with the different pass levels and what processes are associated with these options?

Pass Level	Suitable Qualification	Institution of Higher Learning
Bachelor	Degree, Diploma or Certificate , depending on the career choice of the student.	University, University of Technology or TVET College, depending on the career choice of the student.
Diploma	Diploma or Certificate , depending on the career choice of the student.	University, University of Technology or TVET College, depending on the career choice of the student.
Higher Certificate	Certificate	Training, Vocational, Education and Training (TVET)
NSC Pass	Job Placement	Clerical job, etc.

Please NOTE the Highest Qualification per Pass Level.

2. What are options available for those who haven't applied anywhere and for those who have applied but were not accepted anywhere?

Applied	Not Applied
Rejected on account of lower scores – the applicant should produce any formal document for such a rejection and apply for Grade 12 rewrite in November/December 2017.
