First Lady of South Africa visits Limpopo

The First Lady of South Africa, Dr Tshepo-Matsepe-Ramaphosa will be guest speaker during the Limpopo First Lady Trust dinner with Limpopo Domestic Workers and about 18 Place of Safety children this Thursday, 23 August 2018, at the Ranch Hotel.

The dinner follows a successful Golf Day which raised more than R1million for Women empowerment and sanitary towels for ladies in Limpopo.

“As we close Women’s Month, we want to make sure the destitute women of Limpopo are impacted seriously in their needs. We are quite sure that the few houses we build, and the few jobs we create, are making a difference to these women and girl children in our rural province”, says Mrs Margaret Mathabatha, the Limpopo First Lady.

Mrs Mathabatha , and her team will begin by having breakfast meeting with the incarcerated women at the Limpopo Correctional Services on Thursday morning. A motivational talk by well-known Reabetswe Molapo will be preceded by musical performances by Correctional Services
