INTRODUCTION

The promotion of access to information act, 2000 prescribes that a public body must provide details of records held by such public body so that any request for information may be accommodated.

The details of the records kept by a public body are contained in a book, which is called a manual. The manual therefore relates to the records kept by the public body. The records kept pertain to the business/ functions of each and every business unit to distinguish between the business/ functions of each unit, the records for each unit are numbered differently. Each record also carries a disposal instruction.

Apart from records (files), the manual also contains information on the addresses of the head of the public body, its core functions as well as list of all records kept by public body.
