PREMIER MATHABATHA TO OPEN ROAD D4253, GA-MASEMOLA

The Premier of Limpopo Province, Mr Chupu Stanley Mathabatha will officially open Road D4253 in Ga-Masemola, Makhuduthamaga Local Municipality on 12 October 2021. Road D4253 is a 5,42 km access road that connects the people of Ga-Masemola to R33 in the Greater Sekhukhune District.

The event is part of the completion of the road D4253, which is amongst several roads that have recently been completed across the length and breadth of Limpopo Province. This road is constructed by Road Agency Limpopo (RAL), a state-owned entity under the Department of Public Works, Roads and Infrastructure.

“The roads of the province remain one of the key service delivery hallmarks upon which the Provincial Government continues to improve. It is the commitment of this government to accelerate the delivery of roads and important infrastructure to the people especially in rural areas. It is in that spirit that the work to continue building better roads infrastructure network and connect the people of Limpopo will continue unabated”, says Premier Mathabatha.

The Premier will be joined by MEC for Department of Public Works, Roads and Infrastructure Mr Namane Dickson Masemola, Executive Mayor of Sekhukhune District Cllr Keamotseng Stanley Ramaila and Mayor of Makhuduthamaga Local Municipality Cllr Minah Bahula. RAL as the province’s implementing entity for roads in the province will be part.

The official opening ceremony is arranged as follows:-
