Limpopo Premier welcome international trips investigation

The Office of the Premier welcome the Directorate for Priority Crime Investigation (Hawks) who visited the office this morning to collect evidence on the procurement of travelling agency. Whatever they come with will assist the Premier to clean whatever corrupt activity that maybe going on.

As the Office we will fully co-operate with them to ensure that no stone is left unturned. The Hawks letter of intent is aimed at investigating international travels to check if there are any shenanigans. We would like to category put it on record that this investigation has nothing to do with Limpopo Connexion.
