REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

MEDIA RELEASE
13 June 2019

Limpopo congratulates President of SALGA.

Limpopo Premier Chupu Mathabatha has congratulated the newly elected President of the South African Local Government Association (SALGA), Ms Thembi Simelane - Nkadimeng.

Ms Simelane - Nkadimeng who is the Executive Mayor of the city of Polokwane succeeded the outgoing President Parks Tau to this prestigious chair. Although not new, Ms Simelane Nkadimeng was the Deputy President to Mr Tau for the whole past season and therefore comes well equipped for the challenge.

'We are proud as a Province that she is one of our own. Our municipalities are facing some of the greatest challenges ever, and Nkadimeng's leadership collective comes in handy'

The Premier says as a Provincial government they are ready to support her. 'Her advice to the 6th administration will be welcome at any given time', the Premier reiterated.

'the whole South Africa now looks up to her leadership and we can only lend support and send accolades to the leadership collective', says the Premier.
