

Media Statement Tuesday, 17 September 2019

For attention Editors and Journalists

MEC Thandi Moraka confident of the Ndlovu Youth Choir AGT victory.

Limpopo MEC for Sport, Arts and Culture, Thandi Moraka is confident of the Ndlovu Youth Choir victory in the final of “America's Got Talent Show Season 14”.

The choir from Moutse, Groblersdal in Limpopo Province will be competing with 9 other finalists for a total $1 million prize money. Other finalists to compete with the Ndlovu Youth Choir are Tyler Butler-Figueroa, Kodi Lee, Benicio Bryant, Light Balance Kids, Alex Dowis, Chris Klafford, the Detroit Youth Choir, Ryan Niemiller, V. Unbeatable and Voices of Service.

The choir will perform on Tuesday 17 September at 5pm (American time), 2am on Wednesday (South African time). Moraka said she is confident that the choir will bring the trophy back home and make everyone in Limpopo Province and the country proud.

The winner of the show will be announced on Thursday after the second finalists group's performance. “We would have loved to go and support the choir in Los Angeles but due to unforeseen circumstances we couldn't make to LA for the choir's final performance. We have big plans for them when they get back to the country because to us they are winners regardless of what happens in the final” MEC Moraka.

For more information and Interviews, please contact the MEC Spokesperson Lucky Tshilimandila 079 609 9613 MECML0@sac.limpopo.gov.za; Jermina Kaka 060 997 7078/ (015)284-4321 kakaj@sac.limpopo.gov.za