LIMPOPO PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT CELEBRATES INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

Limpopo Provincial Government led by Premier Chupu Stanley Mathabatha will join the globe in celebration of the International Women's Day (IWD) on the 08th of March 2023. The International Women's Day is a day dedicated to recognizing the social, cultural, technological and political achievements of women. The United Nation's (UN) theme for this year's celebration is: "DigitALL: Innovation and Technology for Gender Equality."

The Premier will highlight the socio-economic impact of gender digital divide, challenges encountered as well as mechanisms of intervention to ensure optimal participation of women in the fast-paced technological world. "It is of paramount importance that women are not left behind on matters related to innovation, invention, and technology so that we do not perpetuate the legacy created by the historical gender imbalances. Women can and must lead in technology." Premier Mathabatha emphasized.

Details of the celebration are as follows:

Date: 08 March 2023

Venue: Ga-Matlala a thaba, Setumong Sport Ground (Polokwane Municipality, Capricorn District)

Time: 09H00
