LIMPOPO PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT CELEBRATES INTERNATIONAL MANDELA DAY, 18 JULY 2023

Limpopo Provincial Government will join the rest of the world to celebrate International Mandela Day on 18 July 2023 at the Epilepsy S.A Elandsdoorn Centre, Elias Motsoaledi Municipality.

The 2023 International Nelson Mandela Day will be celebrated under the theme: "Climate, Food & Solidarity". This year's '67 Minutes for Mandela' will be dedicated to cleaning, planting of trees and donating other necessities for the betterment of lives of the people at the centre. The center takes care of old people with diseases related to epilepsy.

The 18th of July is annually celebrated as International Mandela Day by the United Nations in honour of the first elected democratic President of South Africa, Nelson Rolihlahla Mandela. It pays tribute to revolutionary and political leader who is known for leading the transition from apartheid to a multiracial democracy.

The Provincial Government urges all to heed the call of Nelson Mandela when he said: "What counts in life is not the mere fact that we have lived. It is what difference we have made to the lives of others that will determine the significance of the life we lead". Details of the event are as follows:

Date: 18 July 2023

Time: 08h00

Venue: Epilepsy S.A Elandsdoorn Centre, Elias Motsoaledi Municipality, Sekhukhune District.
