Limpopo Provincial Government and Wits partnership benefits Senior Management Services members.

Limpopo Provincial Government with Wits School of Governance (WSG) invites you to the graduation ceremony on the 20th of October 2023 at the Ranch Hotel.

The Premier of Limpopo Mr Chupu Stanley Mathabatha is expected to deliver the keynote address. The ceremony is for the government Senior Management Services (SMS) members who attended SMS Capacity Building programme which has been implemented by the Limpopo Administration in partnership with Wits School of Governance.

The capacity programme commenced in September 2022 and ended in June 2023 with the purpose and focus of enhancing skills development in the province. Candidates targeted for the programme are employees at the SMS level in the Limpopo Provincial government, State Owned Entities (SOEs) and other employees from the local sphere of government.

At the end of the programme 508 participants benefited from the training. Three hundred and sixty-seven (367) benefited from seven identified workshops such as: Leveraging Economic Catalytic, Enhancing the Capacity of Government Communication and Marketing, Leadership Capacity Building for Digital Government, Emotional Intelligence and Self-Mastery, Unpacking the Role of Political Economy in a Developmental State, as well as Traditional Leaders as Agents of Local Economic Rural Development.

Hundred and thirty (130) public servants benefited from the three leadership and governance courses, namely: Public Leadership and Governance for Provincial Language, Infrastructure, Planning and Project Management, Economic Planning, Development, and Investment Promotion. The candidates have met the requirements for certification thus the Wits School of Governance will confer certificates to the successful candidates during the ceremony.
