PRESIDENT RAMAPHOSA TO OPEN NEW HOME AFFAIRS OFFICE IN MOKOPANE AND UNVEIL
100 MOBILE SERVICE UNITS

President Cyril Ramaphosa will, on Tuesday, 07 May 2024, officially open a new, purpose-built Department of Home Affairs office in Mokopane, Limpopo, and unveil 100 new mobile offices that will extend the reach of the department's services, especially in remote areas.

The unveiling of these mobile offices is part of Home Affairs' Hybrid Access Model which expands services in areas where the department's footprint is limited.

This purpose-built office offers all Home Affairs services in a convenient way which includes shaded waiting areas and ample parking.
