LIMPOPO PREMIER DR. PHOPHI RAMATHUBA TO HONOR STRUGGLE ICON MAMABOLO JOHN NWENDAMUTSWU

Limpopo Premier, Dr. Phophi Ramathuba will pay tribute to the life and legacy of struggle icon Mr. Mamabolo John Nwendamutswu in a special visit to his home in Matangari Village, located in the Thulamela Local Municipality, Vhembe District. This visit is part of the Premier's ongoing Heritage Month program, which celebrates the heroes and heroines of South Africa's liberation struggle and their continued impact on society.

Mr. Mamabolo John Nwendamutswu is a towering figure and veteran in South Africa's political landscape. He is best known for his relentless fight against apartheid and his steadfast dedication to community service in the post-liberation era. Throughout his illustrious career, Mr. Nwendamutswu has held prominent leadership positions within the African National Congress (ANC) and the broader democratic movement. He has been a champion for social justice, equality, and rural development, leaving an indelible mark on South Africa's journey toward freedom and empowerment for all.

"Honoring Mr. Nwendamutswu during Heritage Month is a profound privilege. His contributions to our liberation are invaluable. He has played a pivotal role in various government initiatives aimed at improving education, infrastructure, and socioeconomic conditions in our communities. His legacy will forever inspire us and the next generation of leaders to continue advancing social and economic transformation," said Premier Dr. Phophi Ramathuba.

The details of the Premier's visit are as follows:

Date: Saturday, 28 September 2024

Venue: Matangari Village, Thulamela Local Municipality, Vhembe District
