FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DEPARTMENTS WARNS THE PUBLIC ON UNAUTHORIZED VACANCIES CIRCULATING ON SOCIAL MEDIA

The Department of Social Development would like to inform members of the public about 58 unauthorized posts circulating on various social media platforms including and not limited to WhatsApp, which claim to be advertisements for job positions within the Department.

The posts on circulation have not been officially authorized and do not reflect legitimate job openings.

The Department does not utilize social media channels for recruitment purposes. Our official job advertisements are exclusively published on the E-recruitment platform, the Department of Public Service and Administration (DPSA) website, and through official Department circulars.

The MEC responsible for Social Development, Ms. Florence Radzilani urges members of the public to exercise caution and disregard any job opportunities purportedly advertised on social media platforms, including WhatsApp. "These unauthorized posts may be misleading and could potentially lead to misinformation," Said Radzilani.

To ensure that members of the public access accurate and verified job opportunities, you are advised to refer to the official channels mentioned above. If you come across any suspicious posts, we encourage you to report them to the Department.

The Department remains committed to transparent and legitimate recruitment practices and appreciates the public's understanding in this matter.
