Limpopo Executive Council Offers Support to Families of Fallen SANDF Soldiers

Limpopo Premier Dr Phophi Ramathuba will lead the Limpopo Executive Council in providing support to the families of deceased South African National Defence Force soldiers during their funerals on 22 and 23 February 2025.

Funeral services have been organised in Botlokwa, Burgersfort (Moroke), Schoonord, Ga-Sekororo, Khubvi, Mashishimale, and Ga-Matlala (Ga-Mokgokong).

"We are in a time of mourning and the families need our support during this tragic period. Now that all funeral arrangements are in place, we will be there to support these families.

We wish them strength and express our gratitude for the selfless service their sons have provided to our country," stated Premier Dr Ramathuba.

Members of the Provincial Executive Council will be present at all funerals taking place over the two days. It is important to note that one funeral was held on Sunday, 16 February 2025.
