PREMIER DR. PHOPHI RAMATHUBA TO HAND OVER NEWLY BUILT PRIMARY SCHOOLS IN SEKHUKHUNE DISTRICT

Limpopo Premier, Dr. Phophi Ramathuba will officially hand over two newly completed primary schools in the Sekhukhune District on Tuesday, February 25, 2025. The Premier will be joined by MEC for Education Ms Mavhungu Lerule-Ramakhanya during the handover.

This milestone reinforces the provincial government's commitment to improving education infrastructure, ensuring that learners have access to quality learning environments from the foundation phase. Education remains a cornerstone of development, and investing in modern, well-equipped schools is crucial for laying a strong academic foundation for young learners.

"The handover of these schools is yet another demonstration of the government's resolve to enhance learning conditions, support educators, and create an enabling environment for learners to excel," said Premier Dr Ramathuba.

The media is invited to attend and cover this important occasion.
