Limpopo Government celebrates International Women's Day

Limpopo Premier, Dr Phophi Ramathuba will be leading the celebration for the International Women's Day on the 14th of March 2025 at Makhwibidung Village, Greater Tzaneen, Mopani District. This year, the day will be celebrated under the theme: "For ALL Women and Girls: Rights. Equality. Empowerment."

International Women's Day is a global day celebrating the social, economic, cultural and political achievements of women. The day also marks a call to action for accelerating gender parity.

Women have always played an important role in society on various aspects of life including politics, economic, social, cultural and global development, amongst others. The Limpopo Government prides itself with the achievements made by women from this province on many different levels of society.

South Africa has endorsed and is a signatory to the United Nations Protocol on the Promotion and Protection of human rights, including the rights of women and children. The intended outcomes of the International Women's Day may be summarised as follows:

- To help nations worldwide eliminate discrimination against women.
- It is also focused on helping women gain full and equal participation in global development.
- To promote and protect women's rights and world peace.
- Fight the scourge of Gender-Based Violence and Femicide.

The celebration is scheduled as follows:

Date: 14 March 2017

Time: 11h00

Venue: Bulamahlo Community Hall, Makhwibidung Village,
Greater Tzaneen, Mopani District Municipality
