DEPARTMENT OF SPORT, ARTS AND CULTURE LIMPOPO TO HOST OFFICIAL BOOK
LAUNCH IN POLOKWANE

As part of commemorating Workers' Day, the Limpopo Department of Sport, Arts and Culture, in collaboration with Empore Publishers, will host the official launch of the book "Business Unionism and the Proliferation of Trade Unions in South Africa", authored Mr. Sechaba Nkoana.

This initiative that stimulates local economic activity, forms part of the Department's ongoing efforts to promote literature, preserve knowledge, support local authors and inculcating the culture of reading across communities.

The launch coincides with Workers' Day (May Day), a significant day on which South Africans honour the contribution of workers and the labour movement in shaping the country's democracy and economic development. The book's theme aligns closely with the spirit of the day, offering critical insights into trade unionism within South Africa.

The programme will feature the address by the MEC for Sport, Arts and Culture, Jerry Funani Maseko, as well as a presentation by the author and publisher. The session will conclude with an interactive question-and-answer engagement between the author and attendees.
