LIMPOPO PREMIER DR PHOPHI RAMATHUBA TO LEAD SERVICE DELIVERY WEEK IN MOGALAKWENA LOCAL MUNICIPALITY

The Limpopo Provincial Government, led by Premier Dr Phophi Ramathuba, will embark on a Service Delivery Week in line with the District Development Model (DDM) to assess service delivery and monitor government projects in the Mogalakwena Local Municipality, Waterberg District, from 25 to 28 May 2026.

The Premier will be joined by Members of the Executive Council (MECs), the Executive Mayor of the Waterberg District Municipality and the Mayor of Mogalakwena Local Municipality.

This integrated Service Delivery Week aims to improve service delivery coordination and strengthen intergovernmental and inter-sphere planning, budgeting and joint coordination in collaboration with the private sector, civil society, organised labour, traditional leadership and other stakeholders in the district.

“This Service Delivery Week will address service delivery challenges and provide strategic support on the state of the municipality regarding finance, governance and infrastructure provision,” said Premier Ramathuba.

Members of the media are invited to attend the Service Delivery Week as follows:

Date: 25–28 May 2026

Venue: Hans Van Rensburg Hall, Mokopane, Mogalakwena Local Municipality, Waterberg District

Time: 10h00
