PREMIER DR RAMATHUBA TO LEAD NATIONAL CHILDREN'S DAY COMMEMORATION IN BLOUBERG MUNICIPALITY

Limpopo Provincial Government led by Premier Dr Phophi Ramathuba will commemorate National Children's Day on Saturday, 07 November 2026 at Laanglagte Community Hall, Laanglagte Village, Blouberg Local Municipality, Capricorn District.

This commemoration serves as a reminder to parents, communities, government departments and civil society to evaluate the welfare and safety of children by addressing ongoing challenges such as poverty, child neglect and abuse. The day provides an opportunity to all role players to renew their commitment to support children in South Africa.

“Children are the future of our nation. How we nurture them today determines the future of our country. Let us protect our children and ensure conducive environment for their development," said Premier Dr Ramathuba.

The commemoration will take place under the theme "Listen to the future. For every child, every right".

The Premier will be joined by Members of the Executive Council, Mayor of Blouberg Local Municipality and Executive Mayor of Capricorn District Municipality.

Members of the media are invited to attend and cover the event as follows:

Date: 07 November 2026
Venue: Laanglagte Community Hall, Blouberg Local Municipality, Capricorn District
Time: 10:00
